Steck-Vaughn - 10 pg. booklet titled Guided Reading Leveled Books and Sets. It doesn't give word counts and uses the following leveling criteria from Fountas and Pinnell:

Level A = Grade level K

Level B = Grade level K-1

Levels C-H = Grade level 1

Level I = Grade level 1 (late)

Level J = Grade level 2 (early)

Level K-M = Grade level 2 Example: Level L: Carlita Ropes the Twister and Storms! (Pair-it books)

Level N = Grade level 3

Level O = Grade level 3-4

I also frequently use the following Rigby and Scholastic sources for leveling information.

Rigby has a leveled list that shows all their different collections. You can download it from their website (43 pages). In chart form, it gives the word count, Fountas and Pinnell Guided Level, DRA Level, RR level if available, or Early Intervention Level if available.

Scholastic's ecatalog is also helpful. It gives Fountas and Pinnell levels, lexile levels, interest level, grade level reading level, genre, and a strategy or skill that can be linked to book.

<http://src.scholastic.com/ecatalog> should get you to a page where you can search for a book by title, author, or keyword.
