Reading Is Thinking 2007- Seattle

Reading Comprehension Institute July 24 and 25, 2007

Stephanie Harvey, author of Nonfiction Matters, Strategies That Work, and the Comprehension Toolkit invites you to spend two days at her annual reading comprehension institute to be held this year in beautiful Seattle, Washington. Steph was a classroom and special education teacher for 15 years and now works as a staff developer and national literacy consultant.

Come learn more about reading comprehension and the strategies that proficient readers use to understand what they read. Please join Steph for Reading Is Thinking 2007, her K-8 reading comprehension institute. Appropriate for teachers, librarians, staff developers, literacy coaches and administrators.

Workshop Features

- An in-depth comprehension overview,
- A review of explicit comprehension instruction,
- A variety of strategy lessons in fiction, nonfiction and poetry,
- A process to merge comprehension with content,
- A focus on teaching with short text,
- Video clips of explicit comprehension instruction,
- A variety of children's work samples,
- Suggestions for assessment and evaluation,
- Time to read on your own and
- Time to plan future instruction!
